Leading artist to judge art show

THE Whitsunday Marine Art Show, which has been attracting a growing following throughout Queensland over the past six years, has captured the interest of world-class marine artist Ian Hansen.

The show is held as part of the Oceanic Whitsunday Boat and Leisure Show, which is being held on June 6-7 at the Meridien Marinas, Abel Point.

Mr Hansen's works hang in auspicious buildings, such as Government House, Qantas House, the Sydney Stock Exchange, the National Maritime Museum and in many private collections around the world.

"It is a real gauge of the growing importance of the Whitsunday Marine Art Show that we have been able to attract a judge of this calibre," the art show's chief steward Tony Fossey said.
